DUMITRU STANCU
INTERNAL SECURITY - RU

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past was in contact in January, 1963 with Dumitru Stancu, Second Secretary, Rumanian Legation, Washington, D. C. in Washington, D. C. The source furnished the following information concerning this contact and his trip to Europe:

In discussing source's trip to Vienna, Austria in January, 1963, Dumitru Stancu urged source to meet with Horia Sima on two occasions while in Europe. Stancu requested source to attempt to become Sima's ambassador in the United States, so that source would be in a position to furnish Stancu with Sima's future plans. Stancu gave source fifteen hundred dollars for his traveling expenses to Europe.

Source while in Europe met with Horia Sima in January and February, 1963, at which time Sima stated he plans to reorganize the Rumanian underground movement.

Source learned from his family that the people in Rumania are very displeased with the current regime in Rumania.

Source advised that he talked with persons who recently arrived in the United States from Rumania and learned from them that no one from the Rumanian Government contacted them prior to their departure for the United States, in an effort to have them do anything in America for the Rumanian Government.

Stancu made arrangements to meet with source in Washington, D. C. during early part of 1963.
